

Integrity is proud to announce our recent upgrade by A.M. Best.

On Friday June 10th, A.M. Best gave Integrity Life Insurance Company a financial strength rating of A++ (Superior), it's highest of 16 ratings.

This rating was affirmed to Western & Southern Financial Group, Inc.'s (WSFG) core life insurance subsidiaries, and assigned the group rating to its other subsidiaries.

A.M. Best noted the increasing contribution of Western & Southern group members (like Integrity) to the success of the enterprise.

Who is A.M. Best?

A worldwide insurance rating and information agency with more than 100 years of history. The company was founded in 1899 by Alfred M. Best. Offices are located in the United States, the United Kingdom and Hong Kong. It is the largest and longest-established company devoted to issuing in-depth reports and financial-strength ratings about insurance organizations.

They can be found online at www.ambest.com.

What does A.M. Best's rating mean?

The ratings reflect Integrity's superior risk-adjusted capitalization, conservative operating profile, diverse product and distribution platforms and consistent earnings performance.
